

Homelessness Prevention Workflow

Homelessness Prevention funds short- and/or medium-term rental assistance and housing relocation and stabilization services (financial assistance and service costs) designed to prevent an at-risk individual or family from moving into an emergency shelter or living in a place not meant for human habitation. Services and Updates can happen out of order but must come after project start and before project exit. A project may have multiple Services and/or Updates.

