(limit 2,000 characters)

The Charlotte County CoC and One Charlotte Coordinated Entry Process has established and implemented a Street Outreach team that assists in identifying, assessing and referring VA eligible Veterans experiencing homelessness to appropriate services to meet their unmet housing and service needs. SSVF, employs peer mentors that also work to engage homeless veterans. The CoC has also established and implemented a Veteran’s Shelter, where participants work with case managers to be linked to VA services, as well as, SSVF and Grant Per Diem programs. Veterans experiencing homelessness are identified, assessed and prioritized using the HUD Assessment and VI-SPDAT and are added to the By-Name-List. When a veteran is identified, immediate contact is made to the VA, who works to meet with the participant to determine eligibility. Veteran’s on the By-Name-List are staffed during bi-weekly case conferencing meetings and are linked to appropriate services via referrals and during case conferencing. The assessment tool helps to identify veterans by asking if head of household or household member has ever served in the military. If a participant identifies as a veteran, further documentation is gathered to determine what veteran services the household is eligible for. SSVF, VA, Charlotte County VSO, VOA and other non-profit groups work with the Coordinated Entry Process to ensure that all veterans are linked to appropriate housing and services.
